903 F.2d 717 29 Soc.Sec.Rep.Ser. 545, Unempl.Ins.Rep. CCH 15266AKenneth E. STEWART, Appellant,v.SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, Appellee. No. 88-1572. United States Court of Appeals,Eighth Circuit. Submitted April 12, 1990.Decided May 2, 1990. James J. Seater, Lincoln, Neb., for appellant. Thomas Stanton, Dallas, Tex., for appellee. Before LAY, Chief Judge, and HENLEY and WOLLMAN, Circuit Judges. PER CURIAM. 1 Kenneth E. Stewart applied for disability benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act on August 7, 1984. After the Social Security Administration denied his application initially and on reconsideration, Stewart applied for a hearing before an administrative law judge (ALJ). 2 The ALJ determined that Stewart was not disabled, and the Appeals Council denied Stewart's request for review. Stewart then sought judicial review. The district court1 adopted a magistrate's2 report and recommendation that the Secretary's denial of benefits be affirmed. Stewart appeals. 3 Stewart was forty-eight years old at the time he filed his application, and he had completed high school. He has worked primarily as a construction laborer. His prior relevant work history included only unskilled jobs. 4 Stewart injured his back in an industrial accident in 1982 and was totally disabled from May 1983 until June 1984. After the injury he underwent surgery, which left him with residual pain. The medical testimony at the hearing before the ALJ consisted of the opinions of two medical advisors who testified for the Secretary. One of these physicians, Dr. Ziegler, stated in his medical testimony that Stewart could perform light work with certain limitations, while the other physician, Dr. Brogna, stated that Stewart was permanently and totally disabled. The medical evidence was also supplemented by Stewart's own testimony. There is no medical evidence tending to support the opposite position. 5 Stewart argues that the ALJ improperly rejected the medical opinion of Dr. Brogna and that the ALJ's decision regarding the medical evidence is not supported by substantial evidence in the record. We review the Secretary's decision to determine whether his findings
