You can change the color palette as you like, the position of pages in the browser and much more. It's very easy to use. Web Creator Pro is an advanced authoring software that gives you the ability to turn your static HTML web pages into full-featured websites in a matter of minutes. Web Creator Pro is the easiest to use platform. Once you get used to it, you'll think you got an editor and not a web site development tool. It's a professional development environment for creating fast and easy-to-navigate static HTML web pages. With Web Creator Pro, you don't have to be a Web developer or have any web development expertise. Just type in your text, choose from a selection of colors, edit your images, add your own graphics, and voila! You've created a dazzling and stunning web page. Web Creator Pro is not a drag-and-drop website editing system. In order to add and remove sections, images, and colors, you'll have to use a visual editor instead. The visual editor Creating Web sites with Web Creator Pro is easy if you use the visual editor. The following chapters describe how to use the visual editor to design your Web pages with ease: Chapter 3: Adding text, images, and other elements Chapter 4: Defining page formatting Chapter 5: Using the text editor This time, we'll describe how to design a page with this advanced authoring software: 1. Start the page design process Open the image editor and then select the page templates icon on the workspace's toolbar. If you have not created a page, you'll be asked to open a file or drag an HTML file to the workspace. When you open a file, you'll get a blank page and the built-in design manager, which provides you with a collection of page templates. The collection depends on the selected theme. Select a template, and click the image or PDF icon to import an image or other type of graphic. Next, select any page element, such as a color, image, or other element. Add or edit the text you want on a page On the toolbar, select Create Page

Serial based web applications require knowledge and expertise to setup. This means that you have to manually set up each application that you use. It is very common to have the situation when the application have been set up but it is impossible to utilize it because you do not have a network connection available or you have moved to another location where you cannot access the Internet. This is a bad scenario to experience because it means that you are left with no web application that you can easily use. Of course, there are software applications that offer proxy services but this application is different from the others. The reason is that it is different from the other web applications is that you do not need to make an Internet connection in order to use it. The reason why it is different is that it is based on the technology WAP (Wireless Access Protocol). It works without making a connection to the Internet and it allows the user to use the application anywhere around the world. When you are working in a business environment, it is common to do some of your activities on the Internet. The best example of this is when you are working and checking your bank account balance, bank statements, or checking in real estate transactions. The only problem is that it takes a long time to work these activities and because of this, you are always stressed out of
